The Supreme Court of South Carolina

Joseph Edward Wojcicki, the Advocate for SCANA/SCE&G Scandal Victims, Appellant,

v.

South Carolina Electric and Gas, South Carolina Office of Regulatory Staff/Public Service Commission, Respondents.

Appellate Case No. 2014-002120

ORDER

The notice of appeal in this matter is dismissed due to lack of proper service. Rule 262(b), SCACR (Service upon the attorney or upon a party shall be made by delivering a copy to him or by mailing it to him at his last known address or, if no address is known, by leaving it with the clerk of court. Delivery means handing it to the attorney or party or leaving it at his office, dwelling place or usual place of abode.). Even were we not to dismiss the notice of appeal for lack of proper service, we would dismiss the appeal based on appellant's failure to comply with the requirements of Rule 208(b)(1), SCACR. Henning v. Kaye, 307 S.C. 436, 415 S.E.2d 794 (1992).
